“A sneak peak into the creative process, it’s the adult version of Charlie’s wonder at the chocolate factory, without the chocolate mess. And then there are the voices, the songs, the stories and the humor of the Nashville songwriters, the heart and soul of these shows. There is something unique and special about hearing the music and it’s background directly from the writers.”

“Words that come to mind when I think of Gary Burr. Incredibly talented. Beautiful voice. Gifted guitarist. Quintessential songwriter. Insufferable ham.”
